Welcome to the 2018 Cashel Arts Festival!

The theme for the festival this year is 'Reflections'. The arts are a personal reflection of ourselves – what we put into them influences what we take out of them.

A painting, play or song can have different and equally valid meanings which change, evolve and grow in response to mood, time, place or whim.

Our programme this year provides a palette of colour and creativity with representatives from the various branches of the arts and which the committee hopes will suggest, shape and cement a set of positive reflections to carry us through the long winter months. The festival promises, as always, to provide a rich weekend of culture and fun and we look forward to seeing you there.

DOWN AND OUT IN PARIS AND LONDON

A man drifting through life, in 1920's Paris, scraping by in dead end jobs and generally soaking up the rich underbelly of Parisian life, finds himself falling helplessly short and discovering a very different view of life, looking up from below. With a keen understanding of social inequality and a wry sense of humour, he vividly recounts his experiences while down and out. This powerful performance from Phelim Drew brings Orwell's classic to the stage with humour, empathy and wit.

OLD HANNAH

Old Hannah is a band from the west of Ireland who have taken a deep-rooted love of all things folk, country and traditional and have spun those influences into a unique and sophisticated sound that is both contemporary and timeless. Their influences traverse pop, roots and progressive rock. Pink Floyd, Fleetwood Mac, and Leonard Cohen come to mind throughout, as four deeply affecting vocalists explore themes of love and loss, light and darkness, progress and stagnation, anxiety and calm. It's accomplished, rare, and eminently listenable.

Date: Saturday, 22nd September
Time: 9pm
Venue: St. John the Baptist Cathedral,
John St.
Cost: €12 (plus €2 online booking fee)

BOLTON LECTURE - CHRIS MULLIN

Date: Saturday, 22nd September
 Time: 6.15 – 7.45pm
 Venue: St. John the Baptist
 Cathedral, John St.
 Cost: €15 (+ €1 online booking fee)
 Age Suitability: Adult
 Booking: www.cashelartsfest.com or at
 The Heritage Centre tel: (062) 61333

In the 1980s, Chris Mullin led a campaign that resulted in the release of the Birmingham Six, victims of a miscarriage of justice. This led to the Sun newspaper dubbing him the ‘most odious man in Britain’.

Cashel Arts Festival is delighted to welcome Chris Mullin as speaker to our second Bolton Lecture. Chris Mullin is a former British Labour politician and diarist who was a Member of Parliament for Sunderland South from 1987 to 2010, serving as a Minister for three different departments. He is also the author of three novels including A Very British Coup which was later adapted for an award winning television series.

By the time he entered parliament he had reported from the wars in Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia and tracked down the survivors of the CIA operation in Tibet. In parliament he quickly established himself as fearless inquisitor, going on to become chairman of the Home Affairs Select Committee.

He is the author of three widely acclaimed volumes of diaries. Hinterland, which forms the basis for this lecture, is his autobiography, published in 2016 to critical acclaim.

There will be an opportunity for questions after the lecture.

FESTIVAL OPENING WITH JULIAN GOUGH

FREE!

We are delighted to welcome author Julian Gough to open the 16th annual Cashel Arts Festival. A prolific author of both adult and children's books and short stories, economic satirist, sometime poet, former singer and main lyric writer with the band, Toasted Heretics. Julian won the prestigious BBC Short Story Award in 2007 - the world's biggest prize for a single short story.

Julian will also open Pádraig Grant's photographic exhibition and is involved in a range of events over the weekend for all ages. New Inn Voices will perform on the night.

Date: Thursday, 20th September

CEDARTOWNS

The Cedartowns are a roots/Americana infused sextet from Tipperary. Despite only having formed four years ago, the experience that each band member brings to the table is evident in their flawless playing. Vocals and instrumentals blend seamlessly with the blood harmonies of the Nugent sisters, Mary and Michele, giving a rich tone to their sound. Fresh off the launch of their debut EP 'Shelter', the band are set to play up a storm this Autumn with their shows always promising to be an engaging journey of nostalgia, humour, passion and energy. When you listen to the The Cedartowns unique blend of folk, trad and blues music you will finally realise what you have been missing!

REFLECTIONS: PREMIERE PERFORMANCE OF TRADITIONAL MUSIC COMMISSION BY AIDAN O'DONNELL

Aidan O'Donnell (FIDIL) will write this new music as a way of highlighting the rich traditions of the local area. It will engage with the theme of 'reflections' and produce some new tunes to add to the traditional canon, marrying with existing pieces, and reflecting both the sounds of those who have gone before while creating reflections of a point of time for the future.

Date: Sunday, 23rd September
Time: 12-12.15pm / Venue: The Plaza

AOIFE BANVILLE

FREE!

Aoife Banville is a visual artist who loves to transform the perception of a space by creating large scale, three dimensional art installations. She sees beauty in simple objects and is interested in using the object in multiple and repeat to create immersive and magical environments. Working mostly in the outdoors, she creates aerial sculptures that invite people to experience the work by looking up and letting their imaginations fly.

She is very excited to be creating an art installation for this year's festival and is looking forward to adding her dreamlike magic to the beautiful town of Cashel.

Date: 20th-23rd September

Venue: Moore Lane/ Back of the Pipes

WIRE SCULPTURE WITH IMOGEN STAFFORD

FREE!

Visitors to the festival can watch Imogen Stafford create one of her unique wire sculptures on the wonderful public space that is the Plaza.

Imogen, from Wexford, began her career in sculpting after a spell in art college in 1986. She served an apprenticeship with Séamus Furlong who believed that one must learn anatomy as a stepping stone to sculpting successfully. Imogen mastered the wax process, and produced many pieces of work for exhibitions. She was awarded a gold medal for her display of roses at Bloom 2016 and her work has been displayed at the Sculpture in Context Exhibition at The Botanic Gardens, Glasnevin. Her preferred materials to work with are chicken wire and straw, willow, bark, ivy and lime mortar.

You can see Imogen at work on:
 Friday 21st / 3-7pm
 Saturday 22nd / 11-1pm and 2-4pm
 Sunday 23rd / 11-1pm
 Venue: The Plaza

PÁDRAIG GRANT - DANCING WITH LIGHT

Pádraig Grant is a street photographer, who runs a full time gallery in Wexford where he showcases his own work. His career started as a serious news freelance photo-journalist in 1987. He spent the next fifteen years up to his neck witnessing all forms of human barbarity including Rwanda in 1994. He worked for many of the major Irish and international newspapers and magazines including the New York Times and The Sunday Times (UK) and Irish Times and Sunday Tribune (Ireland).

CLOSE ACT THEATRE (NETHERLANDS) - SAURUS

Giant beasts from prehistoric times.

They are presumed to be extinct, nonetheless the biggest beasts that ever walked the earth return to the 21st century. With a deafening roar these Saurusses charge through the crowds, looking for food to calm their hunger. People jump swiftly out of their way having never seen such giant beasts before. There is a widespread sigh of relief as the Saurusses start eating plant life. Ah vegetarians!

Dates: 21st and 22nd September

Times: Friday 8.00pm, Saturday 1.15pm & 3pm

Venue: The streets of Cashel

Age Suitability: All ages

STORYTELLING WITH JULIAN GOUGH

POETRY HOUR - RECITATION FOR YOUNG STUDENTS

Julian has published four novels, three children's books, and a collection of peculiar poems. He also wrote the ending to the world's most popular computer game, Minecraft. Julian will read from his Rabbit and Bear books.

Time: 3.45 – 4.45pm

Venue: Cashel Library

AUTHOR MARGARET HICKEY TALKS ABOUT HER NEW BOOK 'IRELAND'S GREEN LARDER'

Ireland's Green Larder is three books in one. It's a history, it's a cookbook and it's a storybook. Recipes are dotted here and there, but principally it is a beautifully illustrated history of Ireland seen through the prism of food and drink. Darina Allen has praised it, saying it is 'Enchantingly written... An authoritative resource as well as an entertaining and enlightening read.' Photo: Martin Venn

POP UP GAELTACHT / FOCAIL GALORE !

As part of Bliain na Gaeilge we are asking you to Tóg an Dúshlán Gaeilge; take the Irish challenge to make conversation in our native language. Anyone who has done Irish to Leaving Cert level doesn't just have the cúpla focail; they have focail galore! There are hundreds of words that we all know in Irish. Come check out our Balla Gaeilge (Irish wall) so you can surprise yourself with how much you know. We will have lots of local Irish speakers at our Balla Gaeilge during the festival. Is féidir linn !
